Chris Viau
Two Old Trees, 2020
Watercolor on paper
In a year filled with emotions, I am most powerfully feeling gratitude for our extended community and hope for the future. Despite countless hurdles, our mission and model continue to propel our artists and their stories into the broader arts community. In this annual report, we reflect back on our 20th Anniversary year—a year that was slated to be our most successful to date and instead was ravaged by the pandemic. We asked you to do what you could—to give, to buy art, to support other ways. Arts of Life advances the creative arts and strengthens our leadership.

Reflecting donors who made a cumulative contribution of $100+ between July 1, 2019 & June 30, 2020.

EXPENSES: $961,607

Fiscal Year 2020

The Kubicas

She looks forward to continuing to share all these ideas she has in her mind through her artwork. "Becky has grown in so many ways due to the love and support of her family. She looks forward to continuing to share all these ideas she has in her mind through her artwork."

The Kubicas

"Becky has grown in so many ways due to the love and support of her family. She looks forward to continuing to share all these ideas she has in her mind through her artwork."

The Kubicas